This is the word which should be the characteristic adjective of our town paper in the estimation of some of our towns people At least this is what we gather from the tenor of their criticisms and suggestions. If the paper could not "as you say" (?) conscientiously favor and applaud, it might at least have kept silence; the paper should not shut up controversy; should not hurt any one's feelings; should not create enmity against itself; should not feetly harmless-and good for nothing.

It behoves in them to know all that we can about them in advance.

Having heard of Dr. Rennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY working so thoroughly on the blood I determined to try it, to see if this medicine could do what doctors had failed to do and surgeons had hardly dared to undertake. I can say in truth that the result of this trial was the complete cure of my daughter of this dreadful malady. Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY alone effected it. in advance.

A year or two ago they migrated to these shores with some they migrated to these shores with some them on the streets. They consisted of men, and they were them on the streets. They consisted of men, and women who were uniforms and "jerseys." The latter garment, as it seems to us, was justly selected for better uses, even as Wesley took the devil's tunes. But we remain in doubt about some other-things which have been also chosen for sanctification.

One of these is the English language, which.

In doctrine the Army present a statement in the War Cry, which is not entirely amiss. It is a strange mixture, though, of very opposite notions-of a conviction of duty that amounts to fatalism, commingled with a laxity of practice which a Methodist backslider would scorn to acknowledge--and thus it is a conglomerate which is not likely to produce permanent results. To tell a man that he may be truly converted, and then to add in the same breath that he may as truly fall entirely from grace with nothing to show for it but a few hallelujahs, is desperately dangerous teaching. In practice the Army are nothing if not noisy. In their case the kingdom of UPHOLSTERER AND DECORATOR heaven is taken with violence, and comes observation. They are followers old Persians in believing that God and satan are in a handto-hand "fight," it does not quite rise to the dignity of a campaign, and they propose to Mattreses remade, Lace Curtains cleaned equal to help the Lord to win it. After a good deal of scrutiny they are cleared in the public mind from any charge of not meaning what they say, or acting as they preach

They find their work especially among the poor, the outcast and the heathenized masses of society. To a refined taste much that they do is appalling, and some of their doggerel hymns are simply hideous. It is almost amusing to read the dispatches in the "War Cry," from "The Musical Moke," GLENWOOD AVE., and from somebody's "Hallelujah Wife," and from "Saved Dude," and "Singing Archie," and "Captain Happy Jack." All these names appear in the number for April 9. The style of these dispatches, thanks to the generosity of the Army, has already been noticed by our citizens. The only thing that remains to be said of the Army and their methods, is that the results must speak for themselves. If the consequences of their coming here will be 738 Broad St., & 107 Market St. saloons, which the reformation does not appear to have reformed, we shall be only too EASTER. glad to bid them welcome. FAVORITE REMEDY has won golden opinions. No traveler should consider his outfit complete unless it includes a bottle of this medicine. If you are exposed to frequent changes of climate, food and water, Favorite Remedy changes of climate, food and water, Favorite Remedy should always be within your reach. It expels malarial poisons, and is the best preventative of chills and malarial fever in the world. It is especially offered as a trustworthy specific for the cure of Kidney and Liver complaints, Constipation and all disorders arising from an impure state of the blood. To women who suffer from any of the ills peculiar to their sex Favorite Remedy is constantly proving itself an unfailing friend—a real blessing. Address the proprietor, Dr. D. Kennedy, Rondout, N.
